About Precision Camshafts Limited (www.pclindia.in: BSE 539636; NSE PRECAM)

PCL is one of the world's leading manufacturer and supplier of camshafts, a critical engine component, in the passenger vehicle segment. The company supplies more than 150 varieties of camshafts for passenger vehicles, tractors, light commercial vehicles and locomotive engine applications. The company specializes in the small and mid-size passenger vehicles segment and the key clients it caters to are GM, Ford, Hyundai, Mahindra, Escorts, Tata and Maruti Suzuki. PCL exports 78% of its total production to 5 continents and caters to approximately 9% of the global market.

PCL operates through two state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities - an EOU unit and a domestic unit both situated at Solapur, Maharashtra. The EOU unit consists of four foundries and two machine shops and the domestic unit consists of one foundry and one machine shop. PCL has two joint ventures, the first with Ningbo Shenglong PCL Camshafts Company Limited, for machining of camshafts and the second, PCL Shenglong (Huzhou) Specialised Casting Company Limited, for casting camshafts in China.

About MFT Motoren und Fahrzeugtechnik GmbH (mft-cunewalde.de)

MFT Motoren und Fahrzeugtechnik GmbH manufactures complex shafts as well as fastening and holding elements for gearboxes and engines in the vehicle. The portfolio includes the complete production of balancer shafts and camshafts made of cast blanks (spheroidal graphite and shell casting), forged blanks or bar stock including hardening, as well as the grinding of assembled camshafts and individual cam elements.

The company was founded in 1948 as VEB Motorenwerk Cunewalde and developed into the most important manufacturer of small diesel engines in the former RGW economic area. In 1990, the company was transformed into Dieselmotorenwerke Cunewalde GmbH and in 1992 MFT GmbH was founded on a part of the factory premises of the former Cunewalde engine plant. Since 2012 Guido Glinski is managing director of MFT Motoren und Fahrzeugtechnik GmbH. The company is a supplier to numerous international carmakers such as Volkswagen, Audi, General Motors and Daimler. In 2015, the company was awarded the GM Supplier Quality Award.
