Management Perspective:

Commenting on the Results, Mr. Yatin Shah, Chairman and Managing Director said, “Our diversified clientele across the globe has led us to overcome the current slowdown in the domestic market. Our strong product profile has led us to become a preferred supplier for many reputed clients. We have now started to focus on cross synergies from the acquisitions with a target to diversify the client base across the group and be a preferred supplier for critical and specialized components. Our new machining facility has also seen improved utilization level leading to better product mix in the favour of machined camshafts and thus improved profitability for our company”
